We have a crisis!

Remember the heart warming story about the twin babies we rescued from near starvation in January? Well it is a long story, but since then Dharmik Australia has been left with full responsibility for all aspects of care of all the children in that home. This is costing us about $2500 a month and yesterday our major American donor ($1400 a month) withdrew support citing the global financial crisis. Current Dharmik sponsors donate $440 a month so our overall shortfall is $2060 a month!
